

Please do not allow LPFM stations to take over the current stations now broadcast on translators. I listen to a station that is broadcast in California - I live in Oklahoma - it is the only station I can hear locally that serves contemporary Christian music. A large surrounding area would be devoid of Christian music were the station lost. Please do not allow this action to occur.